

Director, Size of Wales, up to £40k

Size of Wales is a growing, ambitious international charity which aims to mitigate climate change through education and tropical forest protection and reforestation. We provide match-funding to community tropical forest conservation projects with a combined area of 4 million hectares and carry out education programmes and awareness-raising campaigns in Wales.

We are seeking a Director to deliver a strategy that will deepen and widen Size of Wales' contribution to mitigating climate change and to education.

The Director will lead the organisation's success through a programme of influencing, fundraising and campaigning activities with the team. This will involve management of organisational staff and the relationships with key funders, donors and sponsors, stakeholders, forest partners, governments, and community groups; budget planning and financial management; and representing the organisation at events, conferences and in media both in Wales and on international platforms.

The team reporting to the Director includes Coordinators for Forest projects (part-time), Communications & Campaigns (full-time), and Education programme (part-time); Consultants including a financial controller, a fund-raiser and a website manager; and a strong group of regular volunteers.

The successful candidate will have a compelling blend of relevant topic, sector and fund-raising experience, strategic vision, a proven ability to lead, and excellent communications skills.

Salary is in the range £35,000 to £40,000 p.a., dependent on experience, and is subject to annual review. Initial contract period is through to March 2020. The package of benefits includes a 6% pension contribution, 20 days annual leave excluding bank holidays and office closure Dec 25th to Jan 2nd, with a flexible working hours' policy.

Applications by letter and supporting CV to recruitment@sizeofwales.org.uk (Please put 'Director, Size of Wales and your name' in the subject line.)

All enquiries will be treated in strict confidence. Closing date for applications is 4pm Friday 5th October. All candidates will be contacted by Monday 8th October, with shortlisted candidates invited for interviews on Thursday 11th October 2018. (Please note that interviews will take place between 11-3pm)
